Mr Martinez,

I hope you are having a good weekend. Sorry to take up some of your time, but I felt like this should be brought to your attention immediately. if you will recall, about a month ago I mentioned that Daryl was calling every sponsor listed on the front page of WiserTechnology.com with the intent of telling them any lie he could muster to convince them that I was a scam.

Remember the hotel owner that called Adam Platte and asked him if we were really suing Daryl and were represented by Leonard Martinez, then Adam said no to both? Well the gracious Lord was looking after me in this situation because it just so happens that her and husband Daniel have become good friends of mine.

She called me right away and told me what Adam had said. I then asked her to please let me call Adam on a conference call so she could witness this familiar situation unfold as I knew it was going to (based purely on at least 15 or so past experiences).

I called him and sure enough he told me it was too late to talk business to him (my friend called him at 9:04pm and I called at 9:30pm that same night, but those are estimates, so Steve told me to tell you not to site those specific times).

So his true colors are he is more then willing to talk crap to our sponsors, but not to answer to me? I'm sorry I called him because I know you told me not to, but I checked with Steve and he agreed that the situation would play out as we predicted because of the time.

I guess we were a little lucky on that front. Ha ha. Sorry... Any who, when the conference call was over, my friend sincerely apologized to me and said she is very excited to go ahead with our contract. She came to this conclusion based off what Adam told her and how, in her words, not mine.

"Adam freaked out on you after eagerly speaking with me not 20 minutes before".

Believe it or not, it gets worse. At the bottom of this email is a link to a video of me explaining Daryl's last message, posted on 11/10/2010. I did not want to take up any more of your weekend then necessary, so I put in a video what would have taken to long to type. The hotel manager I mentioned above called me Friday afternoon 11/12/2010 to inform me that, sure enough, Daryl called some of the Hotel managers and told them how Wiser electronic cigarettes are bad for you, but also the same story about how Andy Esquivel is a scam and how they are going to lose their money. They had the obviously diplomatic, yet business solution to the problem that has been burned into my ear drums I've heard it so much, "We would be happy to initiate a friendly and profitable relationship with Wiser E-Cigarette. However, due to the hostile nature of the current law suit your company is involved in, I regret to inform you that the decision has been made to wait until the court has decided in your favor, which they inevitably will. Please contact us as soon as everything is take care of". Thank God (seriously) this time it happened in its entirety in front of my friend. She said that she has never seen such juvenile yet vicious behavior and that she would be happy to testify in court on her behalf.

As a thank you, I told her that I would not prove her wrong and refunded her money in it's entirety that night. The $3900 receipt is attached to this email for your records. We had a discussion concerning this that I will go over with you on the phone or in person, but the short of it is she has our back. She even refused to stop selling the cigarettes and said if she encountered a problem with people saying we were a scam, she would refund their money, no questions asked and defend her (not so noble if you think about it because she did wind up getting them for free so I could prove a point, for the 1,364,984.367th time, but nevertheless, I'm very relieved she is with us).

I hope you don't mind, but because of her willingness to testify I gave her your number and told her to call to schedule a quick time she could talk to you so you can determine if she is in fact as valuable as Steve and I think. She does have an attorney as well, so when she calls, if you would rather communicate through him, just get his contact information from her.

I REALLY appreciate what you are doing for me, Steve & Allen and the company. I am not sure if you fully understand what we are trying to do here, but I can promise you one thing beyond a reasonable doubt (like the legal term?); when we make it, you come with us. You will be our lawyer till you get sick of us. Thank you for your time, expertise, wisdom and guidance. I'm looking forward to continuing our relationship and nailing these son's of beaches to the wall.

Please understand when I get impatient or seem to press the time tables, I'm just so fed up with what Daryl is doing to this company. If he were just trying to prevent me from making billions, then I wouldn't have nearly as much of a problem with him. He's preventing KarmaCause.org from giving away billions to people who need it in a desperate attempt to make the smallest difference in this world. Sometimes I am only able to truly sleep at night by reminding myself that Daryl will have to one day answer to God for what he's done to me, not some judge or lawyers (no offense, but no one stands up in that comparison). I'm just trying to say I have full faith in you and when I am pushy, it's just me being impatient. I normally call Steve when that happens and he calms me down, but the rare times I can't get a hold of him I am prone to frustration.

Just know you are respected greatly and your talents are fully appreciated. Please, pardon my language, but please bury these Sucker fishes. I've done all I can. I now realize I have to leave the knock out punch to you. I have full faith you will connect with the next shot heard around the world.

Call me when you can.

In your debt,

Andres Esquivel, aka Andy Esquivel

P.S. -

Just so you know, I will be going to Mexico for a week. I leave Sunday. If you have time, please let me know if you need anything from me before I go. I am going to Casa Alianza, CAM to see what I can do to help. I am a good man Leonard, everything that has happened to me and my company had to happen to show the need for www.xvcast.com. When I told you how it works that day on the phone I was hoping you would see that Daryl should not have been able to do this. Forget the fact that it takes a complete Dee Dee Dee to persist as he has, our laws should prevent this. We need to make the presidency. It's time we set the standard on how people's virtual identity is protected by our legal system. The line WILL be drawn here.
