If you are talking about Heidi Hemmat from Fox news, then absolutely NO. He is under investigation and he is not to talk to anyone especially media!!

Leonard,

It is my understanding that an interview has been set up between you guys and Heidi soon. She actually called Allen two nights ago. Have you firmed up a date yet? I am just concerned about Andy (Andy also expressed concern) that if it is in a few days or a week, he probably will not be ready and will be very hesitant in going forward with the interview. At time he appears stronger; however, it doesn't take much to get him upset. I am not quite certain if anyone knows or saw what Andy went through.

I think I told you that last week while Allen was in Denver, Andy had another panic attack. When this happens, acid forms in his abdomen and enters into his throat. He then gets into a coughing frenzy trying to clear his throat. Andy now calls me first thing in the mornings and I always ask if he has a cold. On Monday, a lady in the pharmacy saw him purchasing that pink milky anti-acid stuff and she questioned him as to why. Andy informed her that it was because of his ulcer and she recommended some vitamins to him. Leonard, it is amazing, he took the vitamins and he hasn't had the problem since. I remember this starting the early part of June. He just joined a gym and as of today, he began his first workout to begin building back up his strength. I feel that I am getting my Andy back and I am concerned that placing him on the air too soon might cause a setback and I know that the two of us would not wish that to happen.

Hope you've had a chance to read the proposal and that all is going well. Don't forget to vote and please watch Tim Geithner on Charlie Rose to fully understand the global economy, the financial crisis, etc.
