Mr. Acumen

Andy told you about your Name. This is to inform you that I was hired by Mr. Klemeck and the new owners of xtagged to find out how many investors xtagged had prior to its acquisition. I would like to inform you that everything you and Ryion are saying is a lie. I would like to caution you that you are walking on a fine line sir and giving false information is a crime within itself. I am emailing you because I was in the office with Steve when your text came though. I must advise you that you are not dealing with kids here. We will call the number that you have provided. I am certain that if there is any truth to your message, SEC will want to review what I have put together over the last three months. Andy did not have hundreds of investors and you sure have been fueling this. To sum this up, if you are real and if you want to protect every ones money, you will see that we will call the number that you have provided. Mr. klemeck does not want you emailing or texting anymore to his organization nor dean or Andy. To do so will be considered harassment; so thank you for the S.E.C. bulletin. We will take it from here and I highly recommend that you and Ryion study up on your lies and be prepared to back them up!

Thank you and have a nice day.

Hey Zed,

Since you're "investigating" how many investors Xtagged LLC had prior to it's acquisition, I thought you'd be interested to know that Xtagged LLC doesn't actually exist...yet!

Attached is my recent filing with the Colorado Secretary of State in which I reserve the rights to the name Xtagged LLC pending my registration of that company as a legal entity with operations in Colorado. If I wasn't "dealing with Kids," then I would have thought you would have looked into whether or not the company employing you ACTUALLY EXISTED before sending me threatening emails! How can any company accept "investors" if it doesn't even have a business license?

By the way, did you learn anything on your call with Solomon Mangolini? I never heard from you after that and thought he might have given you a small dose of REALITY! You must feel like a real moron right now after lecturing ME about "studying up" before opening my mouth! Check your facts next time asshole, and GROW UP!!!

PS - Remind Steve that I offered to let this whole situation DIE months ago if Andy would stop sending me emails. HE DID NOT!!! I'm doing what I promised to do if Andy didn't learn to shut his stupid mouth. Right now you guys are in the trap for fraud, trademark infringement, slander, libel, and it's about to get allot worse. DO NOT FUCK WITH ME!!!

Andy,

That is good news. It is too bad about Daryl. My brother, Henry, warned him about the women in Utah. One would think that he would have learned by now after being scammed with two women prior to Shirley. I began seeing what was happening towards the end of my stay in Utah; but, there was nothing that I could do. She is a professional and played it up perfectly. I do suspect that she is getting prozac to him somehow. I think that she is bipolar. She frightens me Andy. Is it true that Zeb uncovered that she had taken the morning after pill. She had convinced Daryl that she had not been with a man for 10 years; we all knew that was a big fib. She gave herself away one morning while talking to me and then tried to correct. When did she take the morning after pill and when will Zeb's investigation be completed.

Andy, this behavior that we are seeing is not Daryl at all. His father recognizes it; however, we all feel helpless. He doesn't trust anything which is typical of what one goes through when they are scammed. First, the scammer isolate the victim from their family, then they do everything they can to place doubt in your mind and belittle you until you have lost all of your confidence; then they exercise complete control. I know what it is like Andy. I've been there. I had to see the episode on 20/20 to fully understand. This lady is sick. Did I tell you that she had his cat put to sleep?

LOL,

Beckie

Yes! Yes! Yes! contracts are signed and here is preview of certificate promo! Matt just sent it. becky i hate to be the one to tell you this, Daryl called allen yesterday to tell him he was going to tell adam that we are scam he told allen better yet i will send you letter Allen sent the lawyer, Lenard said that when he got fax from allen he couldn't believe that daryl told allen anything about buzz/wiser or wiser e-cigarette becky we dont even own E-cigarette we are just sub, so of course when matt and Mr.Simon and Steve were told, they are suing Daryl and Shirley acumen i told them that she was manipulating Daryl so i just wanted to let you know, because i really believe when Shirley gets served she will leave daryl when she sees who is suing them! Steve and Matt have got a hold of everyone to let them know that if daryl calls them to make record of it, so nothing to worry about Steve already gave my lawyer all info on how daryl lied about 500,000 impressions and how he lost contract with caselmans venue.

I am so confused how daryl has time to call people i really wonder if he lost his job you should check!

well i have meeting in a hour, Vegas is in love with certificate promo! (Well now i feel a song coming on)!

Its so easy to fall in love, it so easy to fall in love

(it's so easy! (it's so easy Yeaaaaaaaa Love you Andy the Scammer! LOL

P.S i really do hope and pray that daryl comes to his senses soon about his mother, i almost emailed him yesterday when allen called me, Only to tell him that i told you happy mothers day for him, See you have made me the man i was born to be! I cross my heart that i do wish he would call you, then you would text me you guys are one again! i hope you know that if i had to give up all this for you two to be together "i would sign it all away for you" just as you would for Daryl! i know you would thats why we all have what we have "Thank you my LORD thank you" ok enough of that, IT so easy to fall in LOVE! its so easy to fall in love (its so easy, (its so easy

I consider this email extremely unprofessional. I came from the corporate culture; and I can tell you that if any staff member or contractor had sent out an email such as this, I would have fired them immediately.

From this point on, and to all concerned, stop using my name in any email sent on behalf of this company without my prior permission and approval. There are ways to deal with the Daryl's and the Rejoins of the world and this is not one of them. I cringe and fear that I might have a stroke each time I open up my email because I don't know what its content might entail. Rjion and Daryl are both acting irresponsibly; but, then are we no better when we sink to their level. My question is why do we feel that we have to sink to their level? If one talk to a tree and the tree does not respond, one will either find themselves to be crazy, a fool or both. So why do we continue to reinforce that the tree (which is us) has brains and can talk back.

Have we not won? If we have, why do we feel that we have to constantly rub it in? Is this a sign of maturity? Is this the Christian way? I am a parent; I consider myself having two sons. Believe it or not, there may be times when I do not like the person(s); but trust me when I say that I do love the son(s). When I took Andy and Daryl on as sons, I signed a contract for life. I realized that in the span of their lifetime, they would make good mistakes and bad mistakes. I only pray that they grow and learn from their mistakes. Who knows how events will impact our lives; it is a crazy world and I continue to pray that this story, this book, or this movie will have a happy ending. I pray that one day before I leave this earth, I can look at my sons and say to the world '.....and the moral of this story is...' This type of email certainly doesn't make it any easier; it cuts an open wound and makes the cut much deeper. In my 40 years of management and my 64 years as a human being, I've learned and taught my staff members not to waste time trying to get even with those that have done us wrong. The way the universe is set up, in time people will hang themselves and I certainly would not want it on my conscience. I know you had good intention and from what I've heard, you are too big of a man for this.

From this day forward, and I hope that Andy and Steve agrees with me, any letter or references to the public regarding any of our products or on behalf of the company, will receive my prior approval. In the old days, one would type a letter, and present it to someone in authority for approval and signature. The Internet, which my prior company was one of the creators, does not give one free range to create a document and press the send key to anyone in the world. All of these blogs and email are now part of public records and my fear is that we shall see them again. The letter that I typed on Andy's behalf was meant for Andy's, his mom, Steve, and the lawyer's eyes only. It was not meant to be a "Gotcha" tool. From this point on, let's strive to take on the discipline of a professional entity.

Regards,

Beckie Dunn

What did you email me last time Daryl "DONT F#%K WITH ME" Wow is Rebbecca Dunn your Mother! all those nasty things you said about her to Allen and all the others are about to prove to you that God listens. This was bcc to all Shirley and your family, to prove i have my job down, And good job on calling Allen, to try to get him to manipulate your own Mom Rdunn. Criminal charges are right up your alley Sir! When Andy told me not to contact you, I would have listened, but i am my own boss part owner of Xtagme.com with Steve, wait until you see what he has in store for you and Buzz weiser Drink and e-cigarette! Well i just quit this job, and Mr. Acumen to use your own words "I am just going to add Salt to Injury" look at the attachment and realize what you gave your mother up for, And then try not to throw-up! yea you heard me right. get glasses or brain check-up Shirley in my you know what never mind buzz weiser comes with beer goggles "KARMA" just started on you Mr DDDaryl.

P.s please forward this to S.E.C because we all have the wrong number, even your Mom has tried again and again to contact the number "You" provided, so please get this email to them. if not its OK they will see it in court

Zeb,

Thanks for the apology. I know that you meant well and on behalf of Xtagged, I would like to thank you for all of your hard work. Many people take for the granted and don't fully understand the power of the Internet until it hits them in the face years later. None of us realize what is in store for us in the future; therefore, we need to think ten times prior to pressing that send key. Whenever I email anything that is controversial, I save it as a draft overnight and revisit it in the morning. I never email anything in anger. You will be amazed in the change of thought when I revisit a draft hours later and even months later. Even when I have taken every precautionary measure in trying to select the right wording, I sometimes ask myself weeks later "What was I thinking."

I have also noticed that a lot of email content contains company confidential information and in the future, I shall begin labeling them as such. Sometimes we respond in anger and we are so anxious to get even that we forget that we are not speaking as individuals; we are speaking on behalf of the corporation. We should always keep in mind that our mission is to change the world through Karma. I recognize that my team does not have discipline that I have as I worked in the Intelligence environment for close to 30 years. I only ask that team members be willing to learn and to keep an open mind. I am far from being perfect Zeb and I rely on input, recommendations, as well as advice from everyone. I have learned in life that there are no bad ideas; it may not be the right time, right approach, or right place to implement the idea. The unique part of life is that we continue to grow as individuals. Our lives are shaped by events both positive and negative. What I find incredible is the way that God created a system that allows each of us to learn from our mistakes. Sometimes we have to go through some hard times to realize the true meaning of life; however, if it is God's intention, Thou Will Be Done.

Today is a new beginning; enjoy it and use every minute to impact the world in a positive way.

Regards,

Beckie

Stop with the pretense that you care about me Daryl. I've sensed that you have been angry with me since you used the words "Fuck You" and slammed the door prior to returning to USC. I never put you out Daryl and you could have returned home at any time. As a parent, I demanded that you respect my house. You made it clear that you were a man when you made the decision to leave Loyola and go to USC even though I begged you not to. You could have talked to me anytime regarding financial aid and I would have found a way to help you; however, I could not afford USC.

I thought that when you returned to USC, you went to live with your dad. It was only a few months ago that I learned that Ann would not take you in. You called me and asked, "Mom, do you love me?" Oh course I loved you Daryl and I still do. I would never have allowed you to be left out in the cold and to fend for yourself regardless of how angry I was with you. That's not what parenting is all about Daryl. I had forgiven you for your outburst because I knew that you were stressed out over having been awakened to sit with your dad in the emergency room and then missing your flight to Georgia. I, too, was stressed out because you had awakened me 1:00 a.m. and I stayed awake for you all night. I then had purchase another ticket for you and wake up the following morning and drive to Georgia. You never shared any of those things with me and expected me to read your mind.

I needed you in November and it took a lot for me to call you for help. I asked for what I called a loan when I should have asked if you could repay me for funds lent you since you left for Utah. You don't care about me Daryl so stop hiding behind that façade that you care what happens to me. Did you care that you put me out of your house in the worse of winter to travel hundreds of miles across the east coast alone, suicidal and broke? Do you not wonder why Winfred, Joseph and Tee don't communicate with you and do you feel that I turned them against you? I didn't have to Daryl, nor did I say anything negative about you, I didn't have to. You did all of the work for me. I have seen all of your blogs and I have been informed of every negative thing that you have said about me.

Andy didn't scam you, Daryl. When he met you he was looking for professional help. He was deeply impressed with you because you were a man of color and he felt that he could trust you. You must have been impressed with him or you would not have recommended that he meet with me. Andy did not scam hundreds of investors and even if he had, what is it to you? What is your motive and what is your incentive for trying to bring him down and what do you feel that you will gain from it? Are you seeking recognition from the white boys that will turn their backs on you the minute they figure out that they don't have a case? I am already beginning to see that happen and I wonder if it is truly worth it.

Believe it or not, it was Andy's idea that I email you and to invite you to join our team. With Andy, it is all about forgiveness and Karma and he was willing to move on and forget. I was very reluctant in sending the email because quite honestly, I didn't feel that you were ready for our team and I felt that you and Shirley would only bring bad Karma. I felt that the two of you were still consumed with greed and money and we are not like that. Trust me Daryl, and your Dad can tell you, As God Is My Witness, You and Shirley Will Reap What You Sew. The minute you think you have it all together; Satan can walk in and take it all away. I cannot begin to tell you how God is impacting my life right now. Do I regret the Paul incidence? I have grown beyond that and learned and prospered from that experience.

God blessed you with a job and position and as a result of that you dangled stuff out there and totally forgot where your blessings came from. You allowed Satan to come in and he robbed you of your family, your health, and all of your belonging. That's how Satan works. He comes to divide and conquer, to steal and destroy. The first Commandment with a promise from God states, Honor thou father and thou mother and thou days will be long. Do unto others as you would have them do until you. Until you allow God to come into your heart, forgive yourself and forgive others, you will not receive any blessings. Non-forgiveness opens up your body and mind and allows bad things to come in health wise, money wise as well as mentally. What God do you worship?

Zeb is real Daryl and was hired by the previous company that was looking to purchase Xtagged. His email uses Zed. I urge you to stop with the blogging; stop with the telephone calls; and stop with the emails. Reach deep into your soul and try to find the Daryl that I used to know and that Andy met in Utah. If you are a man, I would highly recommend that say prayers and ask God for forgiveness and guidance; trust me it works. Have Shirley open up and confess her sins. I've forgave you guys months ago and I now have inner peace. I would strongly recommend that you call Andy and apologize and beg God for forgiveness. Daryl, Andy is a good man!!!! There were times when he wanted to pick up the telephone and talk to you; but, you continued to send these blogs. He has been hurt enough and the more you try to destroy him the more God is blessing him. It's too bad you don't understand that. Talk to your grandparents, Daryl. They were wise people. We are a strong Black race and I am proud of it.

Please, don't send Andy or me anymore emails unless it contains something positive.

Subject: [FWD: I apologized to you Mother]

Rebecca,

I feel morally compelled to warn you that the Securities and Exchange Commission lawyers said that they would pursue legal action against anyone who helped perpetuate the Xtagged scam. Your emails to me and those forwarded to me are evidence of your complicity in this illicit enterprise and it's efforts to defraud investors. If you don't get your head screwed back on quickly, you will go down hard (with Andy and Steve) when this case finally goes to trial. You're an old woman. Do you really want to go to jail at this point in your life? IS IT WORTH IT?

For your own good, I urge you to call Allan Brady at (801) 660-8935 and have him explain to you what you're up against. Then I urge you to call Solomon Mangolini at (323) 965-3974 and convince him that you are NOT an officer of Xtagged and have not helped defraud investors. If you are too STUPID to save your own neck then God help you, because I'm not going to lift another finger to on your behalf. I was willing to go out on a limb for you with Paul, but this time you're on your own.

If you want a reality check, call Andi Rose at 970.221.0524 and tell her that you represent Xtagged and Buzz/Wiser. GOOD LUCK!!!

Guys, Don't worry about me. Two years ago, this would have destroyed me. I found peace a few days before Thanksgiving last year and decided to move on with my life. Prior to that, I sent an email to my brother Joseph and he replied back, "Little Sis, I know it may be tough, but you have to let go." A few days later, Andy returned to my life. Now God has blessed me with two beautiful sons and I know that they will continue to fill my life with Joy.

Love to all,

Rebecca,

you are absolutely hopeless. I'm embarrassed that you are my mother. You deserve whatever you get by continuing to perpetuate this scam and surround yourself with pathological lying morons like Andy. A week ago I gave a shit if you went to jail. Now I hope you rot there. I did my best to warn you for the sake of my own soul. There isn't anything else I can do. Forget I exist please. As far as I'm concerned, you're already dead.

Stop with the pretense that you care about me Daryl. I've sensed that you have been angry with me since you used the words "Fuck You" and slammed the door prior to returning to USC. I never put you out Daryl and you could have returned home at any time. As a parent, I demanded that you respect my house. You made it clear that you were a man when you made the decision to leave Loyola and go to USC even though I begged you not to. You could have talked to me anytime regarding financial aid and I would have found a way to help you; however, I could not afford USC.

I thought that when you returned to USC, you went to live with your dad. It was only a few months ago that I learned that Ann would not take you in. You called me and asked, "Mom, do you love me?" Oh course I loved you Daryl and I still do. I would never have allowed you to be left out in the cold and to fend for yourself regardless of how angry I was with you. That's not what parenting is all about Daryl. I had forgiven you for your outburst because I knew that you were stressed out over having been awakened to sit with your dad in the emergency room and then missing your flight to Georgia. I, too, was stressed out because you had awakened me 1:00 a.m. and I stayed awake for you all night. I then had purchase another ticket for you and wake up the following morning and drive to Georgia. You never shared any of those things with me and expected me to read your mind.

I needed you in November and it took a lot for me to call you for help. I asked for what I called a loan when I should have asked if you could repay me for funds lent you since you left for Utah. You don't care about me Daryl so stop hiding behind that façade that you care what happens to me. Did you care that you put me out of your house in the worse of winter to travel hundreds of miles across the east coast alone, suicidal and broke? Do you not wonder why Winfred, Joseph and Tee don't communicate with you and do you feel that I turned them against you? I didn't have to Daryl, nor did I say anything negative about you, I didn't have to. You did all of the work for me. I have seen all of your blogs and I have been informed of every negative thing that you have said about me.

Andy didn't scam you, Daryl. When he met you he was looking for professional help. He was deeply impressed with you because you were a man of color and he felt that he could trust you. You must have been impressed with him or you would not have recommended that he meet with me. Andy did not scam hundreds of investors and even if he had, what is it to you? What is your motive and what is your incentive for trying to bring him down and what do you feel that you will gain from it? Are you seeking recognition from the white boys that will turn their backs on you the minute they figure out that they don't have a case? I am already beginning to see that happen and I wonder if it is truly worth it.

Believe it or not, it was Andy's idea that I email you and to invite you to join our team. With Andy, it is all about forgiveness and Karma and he was willing to move on and forget. I was very reluctant in sending the email because quite honestly, I didn't feel that you were ready for our team and I felt that you and Shirley would only bring bad Karma. I felt that the two of you were still consumed with greed and money and we are not like that. Trust me Daryl, and your Dad can tell you, As God Is My Witness, You and Shirley Will Reap What You Sew. The minute you think you have it all together; Satan can walk in and take it all away. I cannot begin to tell you how God is impacting my life right now. Do I regret the Paul incidence? I have grown beyond that and learned and prospered from that experience.

God blessed you with a job and position and as a result of that you dangled stuff out there and totally forgot where your blessings came from. You allowed Satan to come in and he robbed you of your family, your health, and all of your belonging. That's how Satan works. He comes to divide and conquer, to steal and destroy. The first Commandment with a promise from God states, Honor thou father and thou mother and thou days will be long. Do unto others as you would have them do until you. Until you allow God to come into your heart, forgive yourself and forgive others, you will not receive any blessings. Non-forgiveness opens up your body and mind and allows bad things to come in health wise, money wise as well as mentally. What God do you worship?

Zeb is real Daryl and was hired by the previous company that was looking to purchase Xtagged. His email uses Zed. I urge you to stop with the blogging; stop with the telephone calls; and stop with the emails. Reach deep into your soul and try to find the Daryl that I used to know and that Andy met in Utah. If you are a man, I would highly recommend that say prayers and ask God for forgiveness and guidance; trust me it works. Have Shirley open up and confess her sins. I've forgave you guys months ago and I now have inner peace. I would strongly recommend that you call Andy and apologize and beg God for forgiveness. Daryl, Andy is a good man!!!! There were times when he wanted to pick up the telephone and talk to you; but, you continued to send these blogs. He has been hurt enough and the more you try to destroy him the more God is blessing him. It's too bad you don't understand that. Talk to your grandparents, Daryl. They were wise people. We are a strong Black race and I am proud of it.

Please, don't send Andy or me anymore emails unless it contains something positive.

Andy and Steve,

Please read the email below that Zeb sent Daryl. If Zeb did indeed send this email, he is nuts and I do not want any association with him. This is extremely unprofessional and he sounds like someone psychotic. Where did this guy come from? I am deeply concerned. In my 50 years of being a professional, I've never seen behavior like this. This guy gives me the creep. This needs to be dealt with immediately. Regardless of what he may think he knows about Daryl's wife, he has no right!!!!!! I don't have a good feeling about this guy. I have worked with many professional investigators and trust me, this IS NOT NORMAL BEHAVIOR.

Subject: Zeb (PLEASE READ THIS EMAIL)

Andy and Steve,

I arrived home after having a pleasant day and decided to read my AOL email. When I saw the number of new emails, I knew that I had to take a seat. We are all involved in the Daryl and Rjion staff on a personal level. Daryl has sent me horrible emails denouncing me and all of that stuff and whereas it used to bother me, got me down on my knees, and kept me up all night; it no longer has the same affect on me. Don't get me wrong, I still get down on my knees. Last night I could not sleep; however, it didn't have anything to do with Daryl, I needed to hear Andy's voice and I needed to be assured that he was ok. I know how Andy feels about his son; I thought the email that I received from Zeb was directed at me and had I known otherwise, I would have handled things differently.

From a business sense, I am concerned about Zeb and his relationship with this organization. I feel that he continues to overstep his boundaries and assumes power that he doesn't have. You have to trust me when I say that I have seen this behavior before. I guess Zeb feels that he has ownership in this company and it gives him the right to do what he wishes. That is not so.

Zeb was hired by someone to be an investigator. All an investigator does is INVEST and REPORT findings back to a person within said company that has been given responsibility to review information and determine its outcome or dissemination. Sometimes in major corporations, this falls in the hands of Human Resources. In corporations where I worked, that responsibility fell on my shoulder in that industrial and physical security fell under my domain. As such I interfaced with FBI agents and private investigators on pretty much a weekly basis. Investigators and private detectives all live by a Code of Conduct unless they are some sleazy operation that I have always avoided. Private investigators DO NOT send out any correspondence on behalf of the company and they handle all information as Company Confidential.

I became furious a couple of months ago when Zeb used my name in an email stating that "Your Mom wanted me to investigate your wife but she didn't have the money so I am going to do it for her for free." I never told him anything of the sort and was shocked by his relaxed attitude and carelessness. You NEVER discuss openly anyone that is being investigated; this simply is not done and it opens up all probabilities of lawsuit and his email becomes a part of public record. As a trained investigator, he should know better.

On Sunday, life was perfect. I spent Saturday attending a great craft fair and jazz concert. Andy was strolling in the park with Sindy and the girls, and the weather could not have been better. Then Zeb took it on himself to send an email to Daryl knowing that he was going to get some type of reaction and THE DRAMA that we had finally taken a break from was soon reactivated. Did Zeb think of anyone other than himself when he sent the email? Did he think of the impact that his email would have on others when he pressed the <send> key? I think not. Andy, you then called me, and asked me to put him in his place which I did. I could not have made it any clearer to him to avoid sending out any form of email or correspondence on behalf of the company. Did he listen - No he did not.

What concerns me is that Zeb apparently has an alias list for Xtagged members. We advertise that we are all about promoting Karma and changing the planet in a positive sense. At the same time, we have a nut on hand who insists of emailing unprofessional and what appears to be threatening letters to a person that appears to mental and on the verge of a nervous breakdown. If this person commits suicide, would you want your names to show up in a letter of this nature on the Internet? I do not. Not only is the letter poorly written, lousy spelling and grammar, it is in such poor taste and it stands against any and everything that we stand for.

I have said it many times and I shall say it again, this is why we have a corporate lawyer. They have spent years studying and training on how to respond to threats. You may not see it or understand it now; but, just imagine and ask yourselves "What if after all of these blogs out there on the Internet, there was one response from Xtagged in answer to all of those blogs written by a corporate lawyer." Potential investors could google our name, they would see all of the blogs written by Daryl and Rjion, and they would only see one major response from us written by a Corporate lawyer on our behalf." Blogs containing crap such as I am happy that I kicked my Mom out; Fuck you; Mr. DeeDeeDee; You are going down dude; Don't fuck with me have no place in a professional organization. A bar or strip club, maybe, but not a professional organization expecting to get recognition and support from major corporations.

We are about to engage in great things and who knows where this road will lead us. Let's acquire the discipline now and be prepared to face adversity, criticism, hatred, jealousy and negative press. My friends, I have lived the life of a wife married to a person that lived in the public eye and I can tell you that what we have been going through is only small potatoes to what we probably will encounter if we get as big as I think we will. You think that blogging is cruel, you haven't seen anything until you see how the press will take your words and turn them around to their advantage. I HAVE BEEN THERE AND I HAVE LIVED THAT LIFE. You need to ask yourselves, "Am I ready for this? Is my skin tough enough for this? Is my family strong enough for this? Beckie's skin has gotten pretty tough over the years. If you feel that your skin isn't tough enough, please don't get into this game.

I love you both,

Beckie

Daryl,

I arrived home to all of this email. Andy was angered yesterday because you interrupted him during an extremely important meeting and he reacted accordingly.

As for Zeb, I am extremely disappointed after having warned him this week to cease from sending out any email on the company's behalf and furthermore to cease using my name without my prior permission. He violated both and I refuse to be a part of any organization that displays that type of behavior of conduct.

Please accept my apology to both you and Shirley. I am hardened by all of the blogs and emails going back and forth. Based on my prior experience, I know that time will heal. Life is simply too short to hate and throw stones. Years later, we will all look back and wonder what it was all about. Hopefully, we will find the answers. I refuse to be a part of that game and I have a lot to look forward to.

As far as Paul is concerned, I took that negative and turned it into a positive. I have a strong faith and I know that it happened to me for a reason. I wrote a short story about how seniors are an easy prey for scam artists that tend come into their lives during their weakest moment. I was going through a divorce, my sister was dying of cancer, my son relocated a distant away, my telephone stopped ringing, and my funds were drying up. In my short story, I point out the methods used by scammers and as a result was invited to speak at nursing homes on the subject. I was also invited to speak to seniors on how to use the Internet and the various tools. My future has a positive outlook and I am happier than I have been for years.

Regardless of where you are, you and your family will always be in my prayers.

Love always,

Mom

Zeb,

For over 30 + years I worked in the Intelligence community. During this period I worked with investigators from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, I was responsible for both Industrial and physical security, and I interfaced on a daily basis with security professionals. Their job was to investigate and then report the findings to a higher authority. I have worked closely with independent private investigators and I can tell you, as I told you last week, that I have never in my life seen or experienced such a lack of professionalism. I don't know where you came from or who hired you. I can tell you that I refuse to be a part of ANY organization that you are affiliated with.

I thought that I made it clear to you that regardless of how my son feels about me; he is still my son and I love him deeply. I will hold you responsible if any harm comes to him or his immediate family that resulted from these horrible emails. I shall also hold you responsible if any harm comes to Andy. How dare you send such emails and who do you think you are? I am by no means excusing Daryl's behavior for all of the Blog non-sense which has gotten completely out of hand or his careless emails and telephone calls. You yourself told Andy that you felt that he was being manipulated and yet you seem to take such joy in trying to send him over the edge. I mistook your email message and thought that Daryl was responding to me. Here again, Cindy instructed you not to allow Andy or myself to see the email and you went against her instructions and violated her orders.

Currently, we are in the middle of working with some important corporations. With all of the negative blogs on the Internet, the only way that anyone can judge us is by how we conduct ourselves. All any potential investor needs is to see this insane email and reach a conclusion that the blogs must indeed be true. Furthermore, you had the audacity to implicate both Andy and myself in the email. With the state of mind that Daryl is currently in, why wouldn't you think that he would print out such an email and send it to the press or any company that we team up with in the future. Other than yourself, who did you think you were helping? Speaking of drugs, what were you inhaling when you created this document? Or did you suddenly decide to venture out into the Twilight Zone and become Mr. DeeDeeDee?

Again, DON'T USE MY NAME OR ANY OF MY PERSONAL LETTERS OR EMAIL in any form! Those items were meant to be company confidential. The investigators that I worked with in the past lived by a Code of Conduct. Where did you obtain your training.

Disappointed,

Beckie Dunn

Daryls skeletons will come out during court i have seen the Paperwork for that court in action but you all need to understand that with what daryl did that court for xtagged is going to be at least six months long. myself and steve, and private owners are suing (Daryl Acumen and Ryion Butcher for wiser ecig and buzz/wiser. the reason we put private investors is because Daryl is so envious And jealous of his own mom Rebecca Dunn that he lied and said she had nothing to invest on his own blog! which again is another lie from Daryl she is co-Owner and CEO of www.Wiserecigarette.com my job was to record all blogs and emails in full, and with that i always informed buzz/wiser and wiser ecig investors to stay private only a handful of us, needed to be public to prove the harassment, so that Steve Klemark and Matt, Becky And I could witness the harassment Daryl and ryion would call all potential buyers and tell them not to do business with any of us and lie lie lie. if you all pay attention just look at the blogs hurry they will be gone soon!~ and watch daryl and ryion attack buzz/wiser energy drink And wiser ecig great ideas from Andy and they only have three owners not hundreds LOL. and KarmaCause.org nobody owns that Andy donated it to the world but there goes Daryl's lies again Steve will be posting all court papers in portal on front page of xtagged called Wiser court so you can view us taking action for (Wiser) only not xtagged, that will be after we sue Ryion for blogs on Wiser ecig and Buzz/wiser energy drink!

P.s my Name is not Zed we have been using Daryl And Ryion as Ginny pigs to show how lies can be broadcast over blogs and that's how our kids and teens and women and workers by manipulation can be affected by online blogs or even in email look at this sample email below that daryl sent and look how its signed!

Email thread below. i will set this up for you! I emailed Daryl our link to business Card it has our 18884121530 number and attorneys link so that he would stop harassing everyone! (#1) all he had to do was call our attorney not us but instead email back very hater like message (please read #2 then look at attachment!) he's trying to put down wiser ecig and he sent it to all of us! Andy sees it and sends back email telling daryl to mind his own business and questions daryl about emailing his own son that is thirteen (#3) remember Daryl is Forty years old, then daryl could be a man and answer back, wait until you see how daryl reply's! (#4) then daryl manipulates the email by editing it and sending it to his mother and of course cuts out the part he wrote! (#5) I answerd back because we were all told by daryls mom not to let andy read the response daryl wrote. And yes i saw it then blew up and sent him a email but daryl edited that also i only said the truth unlike daryl i can back up all i say I respect Andy very much and i got my buttons pushed by Daryls email but please remember i sent daryl link to our attorney it should have ended there . then daryl sends his mom a manipulated email where his mom only sees my response not daryls and she dont understand why i got so mad then daryls mom calls Andys mom and she forwards the real email and sees how manipulating it was and tells sindy and Andys mom thank you (#6) Judge for your self email below! And one more thing check this out Xtagged logo was flying six months before party utah look at partyutah logo that daryl always attached at bottom and try to tell me this guy didn't get the idea from xtagged logo (#7) he just thought he was going to destroy Xtagged He was wrong, And becky please forgive me about not being 100% business professional. I apologized from the deepest part of my heart. I can see why Andy respects you so much Ms CEO;>)
